

Chocolate Month October 2013

National Chocolate week runs from the 14th - 20th October; however in special honour of all of the chocoholics out there we shall be celebrating all month long with some very special dishes throughout The Rubens. With everything from 'A Chocolate Disaster', to chocolate biscuits with your tea and coffee, or a chocolate assiette of desserts in our fine dining restaurant and even chocolate cocktails!

Great Chocolate Disaster

A decadent delight containing chocolate cookies, white chocolate panna cotta, chocolate brownie and white chocolate crisp, topped with chocolate ice cream and lashings of chocolate sauce

Served With Our Compliments

Swap your shortbread for a cheeky chocci biscuit! Also enjoy chocolate flavoured chocolate ganache pots during the evening and chocolate macaroon lollipops in the Palace Lounge

Cake of The Month

Devilish Sacher Torte, served with your choice of tea, coffee or Champagne

Dining at The Rubens

You will not be missing out if you dine in one of our restaurants either!

Our dessert buffet in the Old Masters Restaurant will be packed with chocolate delights, such as brownies and mousses, but also in The Library you can treat yourself to an indulgent dessert made up of 3 homemade luxury chocolate classics

Chocolate Cocktails

Still not full with all that chocolate goodness, why not shake it up and enjoy some liquid chocolate in the form of a chocolatini or a Vienatta in a glass
